

Example Logic Mode only

Logic Model: YWCA House of Teen; East Side Community Center: A Hub of Health and Empowerment for Youth and Community: 2019-2024

Resources	Activities (Inputs)	Outputs	Short & Intermediate Outcomes (2-3 years)	Long-Term Outcomes (five years)
Programs &amp; Funding:            Photovoice            Aetna Foundation            American Savings Fdn            New Britain Community Ctr            In-kind: VISTA staff            Tutoring Partners:            YWCA            Community Health Center            New Britain High            Central CT State University            City of New Britain            New Britain Police Dept            Chamber of Commerce            DPH, Title V Resources:            Parks            FasTrak Bus system            TA MCH/AAP Bright Futures            RWJF SAI Network	Satellite Clinic (by Yr 1)            Screening BMI &amp; other risks            Adolescent Well visits &amp; other clinical services            Family planning            Behavioral health            Transition to Adult care Health Promotion            Fitness programs (High school credit)            Bullying Prevention            Gardening/cooking Civic Engagement            Photovoice College/Career Readiness            Mentoring/tutoring            Career Paths (EMT, CHW) Partnership/Sustainability            Advisory Board Meetings            Transportation Oriented Development funds            Tenants for 600 East St.	# patient visits (350 – 400 annually by Year 5)            # of patients            # /type of clinical services            Referrals for follow up # and type of health promotion activities            Fitness/nutrition coaching for elevated BMI            Bullying curriculum            # of project/participants            # of policymaker dialogues            Presentations            Teen-mentor matches            EMT/CHW curricula developed            #/% who graduate within 4 years            #/% who attend school regularly (more than 90%)            #/% students attending program; at 50% threshold            #Advisory Board Meetings	Clinical            # of teens who have annual well visit            % of teens who receive contraception (LARC or other) Health promotion            Consistency of attendance            Frequency/intensity of exercise Increase in civic engagement skills            (pre post survey)            Before after photos School performance improves            Chronic Absenteeism Decreases            Graduation rate increases New partnerships	Health impact (teens):            Increase in % of teens up to date for annual wellness visit            % of 18 year olds with adult medical home            BMI reduction for teens &lt;85th percentile            # of pregnancies            Decrease in % of teens who are depressed or victims of bullying College Career Readiness            Graduation rate            Employment/higher education plans Community Impact            Policy changes            Built environment: (sidewalk repair)            FasTrak use New CHW, EMT jobs Sustainability Occupancy/renovation of 600 East St