Step 5: Now your FAFSA Submission Summary should be open. Click on the Print FAFSA Submission Summary on the top and then Save as PDF. That should enable you to save it on your computer to then attach it to your application. You can also print the file, scan it, and then attach it to your application.

The file should be around 16 pages. If it is not, you most likely do not have your full Submission Summary.
